Says WILL ROGERS

BEVERLY HILLS.—Well all I know is just what I read in the papers. Been reading a lot about India lately on account of this Conference they been holding in London. When India gets a little uneasy and uneasy why England gives them a Conference. They invite em all to London and the King meets em and they have a few public functions and they all wear their turbans and baggy silk pants, and all are allowed to make speeches, and the papers make over em and they go home.

They come for freedom and go home with press notices. They are pretty near like American tax payers. In that respect, just give em a little voice sometime, and make em think they are getting some place and they go home happy. Well this last one in London was the biggest one in a long time, for the unrest was the biggest. Conferences are always in proportion to public discussion.

The King made a public speech to em just like he did for the nations at the Disarmament Conference last January. You know those English are smart, they know how to handle more different kinds of people than anybody. Now we can do that, that's why we are no good as Colonizers. But Britain can go in anywhere and they got all the pomp and glory that most Natives like. Then they are smart enough to always make them think they are doing part of the management of their country themselves. When as a matter of fact they won't be doing anything, but they can be made to look like it.

Now this Indian Conference, with over 60 Indian Princes, controlling over half of India—well for them to get to London and be made over by Royalty and the British Government why that just site them off pretty for another few years. Course they are not looking for complete independence for India, for that would do away with their own feudal power, for each one of those Babes where he comes from is the "Dorah" of his hills. Bill, on his native heath, never had any more power than they do. Some of this birds rule over a municipality as big as one of our big States like New York. All the taxes and toll are paid to them individually, they don't have to be bothered with an election every four years to see who is the head man. He is born the head man and stays "Him" till he passes out.

India is full of castes. They are more caste than we have Commissions. They got one cast that is called the "Untouchables" they are not even allowed to let their shadow fall across one of the upper classes. We can't imagine it over here for we just have two or three different ones, the Republicans and the Democrats. The Democrats have always occupied our lowest position. They could let their shadow fall anywhere, but in a selected official position, they were miles like the "Untouchables."

This fellow Ghandi wasn't there. I think they got him in jail again. When there ain't any more news from India why the English are jailing Ghandi. He is an odd kind of a duck, we haven't got anyone over here to in any way compare with him. He is looked on as a kind of a prophet. I guess Coolidge would come nearer fitting him in that respect than anyone else. Then he is a Preacher too, kind like Bishop Cannon when he was feeling good and sorta combined Politics and preaching. But Ghandi always preached "No violence." He always sold agree to everything England wants, but don't do it, sort of a sympathetic resistance.

In build and physique from the looks of his pictures, we haven't got anybody like him. He is unless it is Will Rogers. Bill is set up a good deal like Ghandi from the architectural stand-point. He has got a following a good deal like William Jennings Bryan used to have. They sure believe in him. We haven't got anyone that has a following comparable to him here now. If either one of our "Classes" had one like him, they would run em for President. Well anyhow they didn't take him to the Conference, he would have eto all the thunder from the gold-painted Rajahs.

Now Britain ain't going to give them any more "Home rule" than we are going to give the Farmers relief. They will just have a big time and all go home and use the old Alibi like we do with the Philippines. "You are not ready for your independence yet."

When we got ours, if history ain't an awful liar, we sure wasent in much shape to handle it. "You are hungry, but you are not able to eat yet."

ATLANTA FIVES EASILY DEFEATED

The basketball season was decisively and satisfactorily opened last Thursday night when two local teams jolted opposition from Atlanta with one-sided victories. The High School took the season's first scalp, winning over Atlanta High by 29-11 score, and the All-City panted Atlanta's hopeful but impotent Independents with a 49-7 beating.

The High School Northern Lights started slowly. At one period in the second quarter the score was tied at 3-3, and the halfway station found Grayling holding an indecisive 7-4 margin. The second half settled the game as far as score was concerned.

Atlanta did not present very stern opposition. Rather lost on the big foot they had no coordinate offense and really weren't dangerous. The Northern Lights showed early season rough edges, which no doubt could be expected in a team which has had so little "experience," however, these rugged features of play present a more serious light, and Coach Cushman promises his charges plenty of hard work of the kind necessary to iron out those flaws which will have to go before the hard games of the future. The team showed plenty of potential ability and no opponent can afford to take them lightly.

In the second game of the double bill the Atlanta Independents found the ax wielded by the Grayling Lumberjacks far too keen and collapsed under a heavy count. The Grayling team, clad in very snappy new uniforms that will see plenty of duty this season, rolled up the count in fashion too steady to be interesting. Even at that the Lumberjacks cashed in on a small per cent of their opportunities in their offense. They will have a formidable team, and contrary to the rule for independent squads of this type, are taking their work seriously. Coach Cushman directs their play.

The Grayling band was on hand to keep things popped up and their efforts were decidedly appreciated by very good crowd.

Ray Milnes referred and handled both games in very acceptable style.

The games were remarkably free from fouls.

NO CHANGE IN SPEARING LAWS

The winter season of 1930-31 brings no change in the fish spearing laws and with a year's experience with the spearing regulations there ought to be a sharp decrease in the number of violations of these laws during the next few months, according to the Fish Division of the Department of Conservation.

The regulations concerning winter spearing in inland lakes and spring spearing in the non-trout streams were adopted by the 1929 legislature and were in force for the first time last winter and spring.

To remind those planning to use a spear during the coming season, the Fish Division has issued the following brief digest of the spearing laws:

Spears may be used in the inland lakes during the times when the lakes are frozen. The species of fish that may be taken by spear in the lakes are: Pickerel, (grass or 5 Ft. 0 In. 122 Pounds great northern pike), mullet, sucker, 5 Ft. 1 In. 126 "

5 Ft. 2 In. 129 "

5 Ft. 3 In. 132 "

5 Ft. 4 In. 136 "

5 Ft. 5 In. 140 "

5 Ft. 6 In. 144 "

5 Ft. 7 In. 148 "

Conforming with the sentiment of the legislature which declared all inland lakes open to spearing when 5 Ft. 8 In. 152 "

inland lakes open to spearing when 5 Ft. 10 In. 156 "

Weights given include ordinary in-

Conservation Commission last year door clothing.

If you are overweight cut out pies, pastries and candy for 4 weeks—then weigh yourself again—go light on potatoes, rice, butter, cream and sugar—eat lean meat, chicken, fish, salads, green vegetables and fruit.

Lakes or ponds created by the backwaters of a dam or artificial barrier on a stream are part of the stream and are governed by the regulations applying to that stream.

Conforming with the sentiment of the legislature which declared all inland lakes open to spearing when these waters are frozen over, the conservation commission last year denied grant petitions seeking the closing of local waters to spearing.

Spearing is not permitted in any stream before April 1. From that time until May 31, spearing for non-game fish including bullheads, carp, catfish, eisco, dogfish, garfish, smelt, suckers and whitefish is permitted from non-trout streams. Spearing is permitted for pike in non-trout streams from May 1 to May 31.

Michigan has 425,000 small game and deer hunters; from 5,000 to 10,000

are usually alive, vigorous and vivacious in 4 weeks.

FIRE HAZARD TAGS EFFECTIVE

The success of the "Fire Hazard" tags placed on all automobiles entering the upper peninsula by the Straits of Mackinac last summer, and during the periods of intense forest fire danger, has assured continuance of this practice next year, according to the Forest Fire Division of the Conservation Department.

Last summer, as an experiment, the Forest Fire Division with the cooperation of the State Highway Department placed tags on automobiles entering the northern part of the state by way of the state ferries when weather conditions made fire hazards acute. The tags asked caution on the part of the motorist and his passengers and suggested ways of preventing fires.

A noticeable increase in carefulness on the part of motorists resulted from the use of these tags, it was said. The tags were so designed as to serve as souvenirs.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1930

A GREAT deal of talent is lost in the world for want of a little courage. Every day sends to their graves obscure men whom timidity prevented from making a first effort; who, if they could have been induced to begin, would in all probability have gone great lengths in the career of fame. The fact is, that to do anything in the world worth doing, we must not stand back shivering and thinking of the cold and danger, but jump in and scramble through as well as we can. It will not do to be perpetually calculating risks and adjusting nice changes—a man waits and doubts, and consults his brother, and his particular friends, 'till one day he finds he is sixty years old and that he has lost so much time in consulting cousins and friends that he has no more time to follow their advice, Sydney Smith.

A couple of State Police slipped into Grayling Tuesday afternoon and raided several Grayling business places for slot machines.

The regular meeting of the graduate nurses of the Grayling district was held at Mcrey Hospital Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance.

Will those who have pie plates gotten at the Grange bake sale on Nov. 8, please return them to the Grayling Hardware as soon as possible.

Miss Hazel Cassidy has resumed her teaching duties in the First grade after a several weeks absence due to illness. Miss Eleanor Gorman filled Miss Cassidy's place during her absence.

A lot of toys and other gift goods have been brought into our Furniture store from our Variety Store stock, and will be disposed of at greatly reduced prices. Ask the clerk to show you them. Sorenson Bros. —Adv.

Footwear for Xmas is always appreciated. Hosiery, socks, slippers and shoes at Olson's. —Adv.

Joseph L. Cassidy has taken over the sales of the Simplex Mopping tank and equipment. It certainly is a handy article making floor cleaning a pleasure instead of a drudgery. Single tank outfit for the home and smaller places and double for heavy duty work.

The ladies of the Bridge club were very beautifully entertained by Mrs. A. J. Joseph at luncheon Saturday afternoon. Small tables were placed through the rooms on which the luncheon was served. The holiday green and red was the color scheme. Mrs. Oscar Hanson won the high score prize and Mrs. Harold McNeven the guest prize. Other guests of the club were Mrs. R. B. Howard and Mrs. Harold Jarmain.

Mrs. Emery Craft was hostess to the Birthday club last Thursday afternoon. The ladies enjoyed sewing on a quilt which they will soon have ready to sell. The ladies also enjoyed contests. Mrs. Russell Valla capturing both prizes. The Club presented Mrs. Valla and Mrs. Neal McDaniels with lovely birthday gifts. They were eleven members and two guests present. Mrs. Craft assisted by the committee served a delicious luncheon in the afternoon. The Club will meet with Mrs. Axel Larson this Thursday afternoon.

Post offices will make every effort to handle the Christmas mails without congestion and delay, but owing to the enormous volume this can be done only with the cooperation of the public. In a bulletin issued by the postoffice department it is requested that patrons SHOP NOW and MAIL EARLY for early delivery. It already is not early so don't delay another day but get your parcels in the mail right away. Give the postal clerks a chance and they will do their parts. Ask your postoffice relative to packing, shipping and a number of other things patrons of the postoffice should know.

See the new Easy Washer at $75.00 at Michigan Public Service Co. —Adv.

See the new Interwoven socks, silk and wool mixtures, at Olson's. Bake sale Saturday afternoon at the Schott's grocery.

State police gathered in a lot of slot machines from among some of the business places Tuesday.

See the special bargains in women's and children's house slippers, at Olson's. —Adv.

Mrs. Phoebe Owens will leave next Tuesday for Ferndale to spend the winter with her daughter Mrs. Harry Ward and family, as she has done for several years past.

Keep in mind St. Mary's bake sale to be held on Dec. 13th at the Schott's grocery.

Grayling Chapter Eastern Star will entertain at a Christmas party Tuesday evening at the American Legion hall beginning at 7:30 o'clock, for the members and their children.

Immediately following the basket ball games next Saturday night, Dec. 13, there will be dancing at the Temple theatre. Bills 75c per couple. Extra lady and spectator 10c; Everybody welcome.

Grayling Lumberjacks basketball team goes to Alpena today to play the Alpena Independents. It's going to take a fast team and plenty of help from the side lines to beat the Lumberjacks.

The committee in charge of the bake sale to be given Saturday afternoon by St. Mary's Altar society at the Schott's grocery anticipate a large selection of fancy pastries and other baked goods. Do your Saturday baking by attending the sale.

Don't miss the basket ball games next Saturday night when Grayling Lumberjacks will play the Bay City "Y" and the High School will take on Hoy's Interim team of Central State Teachers College of Mt. Pleasant. Both games promise to be good ones. Admission 20 and 40c.

Fine large Christmas trees have been placed in front of the business places of Grayling. They will remain there until after New Years. Now a little snow to clean up the discolored snow and Michigan Avenue will have a real "Christmasy" appearance. Its woody appearance would, we believe, even attract the wild rabbits. In a few days the community tree will be adding to the scene.

Last Tuesday evening a goodly number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. S. B. Wakeley to help her celebrate her birthday. Cootie and pinocchio were enjoyed by all. Kenneth Cise won the first prize for pinocchio and Gale Cise the consolation prize. A very nice lunch was served. Mrs. Wakeley received many very nice gifts and the best wishes of all her guests for many more birthdays.

Mr. Hagle, photographer, who is operating a studio in the Avalanche building for several weeks, urges that those desiring portraits for Christmas gifts make their appointments at once. His work is highly commendable and as he will be here only a limited time, those desiring photographs should take advantage of this opportunity while he is in Grayling. Mr. Hagle says those desiring after Christmas delivery should have photographs taken before Christmas.

All women like Iron Clad hosiery; 50c to $2.00 at Olson's. —Adv.

When you buy Daniel Green's Company slippers, you buy the best. See them at Olson's. —Adv.

The Santa Claus motion pictures were shown in Grayling school Tuesday, much to the delight of the pupils, especially the little ones. This feature was presented by employees of the Bay City Times.

Nice fat yearling hens, dressed and cleaned ready to cook. Give us an order for one or more for Christmas. The supply is limited. Charles Corwin. —Adv.

Mrs. A. J. Trudeau entertained her "500" club last Thursday evening very nicely. Mrs. Adler Jorgenson held the high score and Miss Jane Ingley won the second prize. The hostess served a delicious lunch.

Few cities the size of Grayling present as fine a lot of Christmas advertising as our merchants are doing in the Avalanche this week. Every advertisement offers good suggestions and anyone intending to purchase articles for Christmas gifts should easily be able to profit by reading over every advertisement.

There never was a time in the history of Grayling when the merchants presented finer and more desirable stocks of holiday goods. After reading the advertising, visit their places of business and enjoy looking over their displays. You will be welcome whether you wish to buy or not.

NEW HUDSON-ESSEX MODELS INCREASE SALES

Favorable reception given the new Hudson and Essex models, introduced one week ago at the lowest prices in the history of the company; and the resultant sales to consumers and dealers orders have caused the production schedule to increase in excess of 2,000 cars a week. This is the largest production schedule at the Hudson-Essex plant since June.

"The reception accorded our 1931 offerings exceeded our own optimistic hopes and those of our dealers," said William J. McNamee, president and general manager, "and the actual sales do not represent the confidence of the crowds that attended the initial showings. From every section of the country we received telegrams to the effect that the public was in a better buying mood than at any time in many months. These telegrams from our dealers were optimistic and confident of the future. All were agreed that the 1931 buyer is a type that was encountered in the years prior to the great wave of prosperity.

"I am confident that conditions are improving and that returning confidence is becoming contagious enough to enthuse salesmen, create sales, get the money back into circulation, and gradually increase employment," reported Hudson's executive.

Mr. J. W. Greenwood

Once again, we have been reading through the inimitable story of Rip Van Winkle and have aroused in our souls an undying sympathy for Rip. To say the least, he was pathetically unfortunate in his domestic relationships. No one would want to fellowship with such a creature as Dame Winkle, and even the dog Wolf, mongrel though he may have been, the kindly light of stars, and a twenty-year sleep in the Catskill Mountains was to be preferred to her.

In this connection, we confess that we have never learned the source of Washington-Irving's theme. Perhaps he was a student of an ancient Book of Wisdom, for in the Book of Books we read—"Better to live in a lonely desert than beside a nattering, quarreling some woman."

Which causes us to think with delight upon the privilege of having congenital companions, and to cautiously advise unwedded bachelors against a choice of wife with whom an enforced fellowship might prove an isolated existence in a lonely desert. But the advice holds good to unchosen treasures as well, although they may exercise that larger measure of caution which makes it un-called for.

After the meeting tea and cakes were served.

SOS SHELF FOR A HURRY-UP DINNER

By J. W. Greenwood

Once again, we have been reading through the inimitable story of Rip Van Winkle and have aroused in our souls an undying sympathy for Rip. To say the least, he was pathetically unfortunate in his domestic relationships. No one would want to fellowship with such a creature as Dame Winkle, and even the dog Wolf, mongrel though he may have been, the kindly light of stars, and a twenty-year sleep in the Catskill Mountains was to be preferred to her.

In this connection, we confess that we have never learned the source of Washington-Irving's theme. Perhaps he was a student of an ancient Book of Wisdom, for in the Book of Books we read—"Better to live in a lonely desert than beside a nattering, quarreling some woman."

Which causes us to think with delight upon the privilege of having congenital companions, and to cautiously advise unwedded bachelors against a choice of wife with whom an enforced fellowship might prove an isolated existence in a lonely desert. But the advice holds good to unchosen treasures as well, although they may exercise that larger measure of caution which makes it un-called for.

NEWS & COMMENTS FROM WASHINGTON

(By Congressman Roy O. Woodruff, Tenth Michigan District.)

Congress convened on Monday, December 1. The House of Representatives has already passed the Treasury and Post Office Department appropriation bill and sent it to the Senate. The fact that the House date or buy local authorities so short a time is indication that, please, whenever they please and this branch of Congress can operate against whom they please. The local authorities seem either unable, or unwilling, to curb them and consequently a state of war between organized society and organized crime exists.

The activities of these gangsters take many different forms. In New York City, for instance, the racketeer collects his tribute from the milk or coke, or cause to be persuaded, or to food and to feed the babies; he aid or assist in persuading, inducing, or enticing, or coercing, any other person to go in interstate or foreign commerce from any place in any state or territory of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, to any place in any other state, or to any other place in such territory or District of Columbia, for the purpose of committing, or of aiding, abetting or assisting in the commission of, or for the purpose of procuring, inducing, inciting, or coercing any other person or persons to commit, or to aid, abet or assist in committing, in such other state or in such territory or in the District of Columbia, any felony as defined by the laws of such other state or such territory, or the District of Columbia, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof, at any murder shall have been committed as the result thereof within such other state or such territory, or the District of Columbia, shall be punished by death or by imprisonment for life in the discretion of the court, otherwise by a fine of not more than $25,000 or by imprisonment, or not more than twenty-five years, or both such fine and imprisonment.

punity, collect tribute from a person from the cradle to the grave, it is high time every authority in the land be invoked to curb them. The income of these criminals is variously estimated at from two to four billion dollars annually, every dollar of which ultimately comes from the pockets of the average American citizen. Even the people on the farm, while they perhaps do not realize it, are today paying their share of this tribute to organized crime.

My bill gives to the Federal Government the authority it does not now have to participate with the city and state authorities in putting an end to this intolerable condition. The police power of the city ends at the boundary lines of that city; the authority of the state ends at the boundary lines of that state. The Federal legal arm is a long one and reaches into every corner of our land. The authority of the Federal Government ends only at the boundary lines of our most distant possessions. Obviously, the Federal Government is better equipped to handle this situation than the state or city authorities could possibly be. The penalties carried in my bill are, in case of murder resulting from such criminal activities, life imprisonment or death at the discretion of the trial judge. Lesser penalties are provided for and will be fixed by the Federal Judge for lesser crimes.

The only objection which has been or can be raised to this proposed legislation is that of the theorist who believes the Government should leave prosecution of criminals to the city and state authorities. They hold that it is not the province of the Federal Government to assume any of these responsibilities. That theory is fine and should be followed, provided always that the city and state authorities are capable of properly assuming all these responsibilities. But, it must be apparent to even the most confirmed theorist that racketeer and gangster activities are increasing rapidly and that the city and state authorities are making no progress whatsoever toward curbing them. It must be apparent also that, unless some additional authority is invoked it will be only a comparatively short time that these racketeering activities will reach into every line of industry and we will have Government by the criminal class, rather than Government by the law-abiding.

In a situation like this it seems to me that theory must necessarily give way to cold facts and necessity.

Text of proposed bill by Representative Roy O. Woodruff of Michigan: Invoking the powers of the Federal Government under the commerce clause of the Constitution to aid the states in suppressing racketeering, kidnapping, hijacking, murder and other crimes.
